CONGREGATIONAL CERTIFICATE

Walking and Healthy Eating (A Response to Obesity)

Congregation: Congregation Bnai Israel
8652 4th Avenue, Redwood City, CA 94062

This certificate includes items developed in line with national, regional and local goals to foster personal and community engagement.

This regional coordinated campaign would support HHS/White House Office of Faith Based and Neighborhood Partnership strategies, in partnership with the multiple County Departments and be in conjunction with local governmental and social service agencies.

This Certificate might include:

1. Designation of a congregational representative and selection of a congregational team.
2. A “food covenant” for congregational events, such as “No Soda Summers,” low impact food stations, no high impact food stations, etc.
3. Partner congregations meeting in a centrally located park for “walking together for connected and healthier communities.” Six weekly walks with individual pledges to participate 4, 5, or 6 weeks.
4. Clergy committing to a community list of “Clergy standing up for healthy lives and communities through reducing obesity.”
5. Collective participation in geographic area with neighborhood outreach in line with local and national goals.
6. [To be selected by each group of four partner congregations.]
7. [To be selected by the individual congregation [from denominational goals as available.]
